

BADGERCARE+ PRENATAL SERVICES

BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Services provides health care for pregnant women who have been denied BadgerCare Plus because of their immigration or citizenship status, or who are in prison or jail.

Covered Benefits

This program covers services such as:

- Prenatal care,
- Doctor and clinic visits,
- Prescription drugs, including prenatal drugs, and
- Labor and delivery.

You may be able to get BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Services if you:

- Live in Wisconsin,
- Provide medically verified proof of your pregnancy,
- Have family income at or below the monthly income limit listed below,
- Have not dropped health insurance, and
- Do not have insurance or access to an employer-sponsored health insurance plan for which the employer pays 80% or more of the monthly premium.

Note: Social Security Numbers are not required. Information about your family will not be shared with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) (formerly INS).

Family Size	Effective 2011 Monthly Income Limit
1	$2,722.50
2	$3,677.50
3	$4,632.50
4	$5,587.50

For each additional person add $955.

Note: Include your unborn baby(s) in your family size.

How to Apply

Apply for BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Services through your local county or tribal agency. You can apply by mail, phone or in person. To get an application, ask for help completing the application, or to find the local agency in your area, go to badgercareplus.org or call Member Services at 1-800-362-3002.

It is important to apply as soon as possible, since the date you can start getting benefits is the first of the month in which you apply and meet all program rules.

If you are not able to get benefits through BadgerCare Plus Prenatal Services, you can apply for Emergency Services. If you are able to get Emergency Services, only labor and delivery cost will be paid.
